

Blue & White collection

Ideal for blue & white Collectors, successful heritage designs from our early days when Lowestoft Porcelain started production, often collectable alongside examples of original Lowestoft Porcelain.

The making of special pieces is as true today as in the past where we capture family details such as the William Mewse family of Southwold (see William Mewse catalogue page and history section), or recently the Rix family depicted on a Heritage mug (as seen in the Norwich Castle Museum).
